

At the end of Autumn Term we went to the ruins of St. Margaret's Church. Here we were joined by Father Edward, parents and villagers to sing carols. It was a lovely way to end the term.

